Grand jury presented report of several indictments and also the following:

To the Honorable Circuit Court of Morgan county, State of Missouri:

We, your Grand Jury, beg leave to make the following report:

We find the county court house in fair condition, but would respectfully recommend that if practicable a new tile roof be placed on said building. We also recommend a system of sewage and water closets or toilets. There should also be furnished comfortable chairs for the jury rooms and rest rooms for witnesses placed under the rule and required to remain out of the court room during the trial of a case.

As requested, we, in a body visited the new County Home for the poor and found the same located about one mile southeast of the court house in an ideal location with splendid drainage and perfectly sanitary. The beds and bedding new and clean, good water, the inmates perfectly satisfied with the care and attention of their superintendent, Mr. Oscar Morris, and we believe and assert that said home is a credit to the taxpayers of Morgan county and an honor to the officers who erected same. We would further suggest that if the taxpayers of the county will visit the home, there will not be so much unjust criticism of it and of the purchase of the land upon which it is erected and the construction of the building.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McPEAK,	S. T. HUDSON,
W. P. SIEGEL,	W. T. REED,
G. H. BAQUET,	G. W. FOWLER,
FRITZ RASA,	SAM DILKS,
JOHN SPARKS,	J. V. BROWN,
M. P. HUGHES,	DAVE MARRIOTT.

Court adjourned to meet October, 12, 1914.
